

Sexual Assault Investigators' Association of Ontario (SAIAO)

Present a four-day conference for officers and civilian police members investigating/managing sexual assault occurrences.

November 14 to 17, 2022
Embassy Suites Hotel Niagara Falls

Presentations include:

The Reynhard Sinaga International Serial Rapist Investigation – Detective Chief Inspector Zed Ali of the Greater Manchester Police will discuss the investigation and apprehension of the most prolific serial rapist in the UK's history, if not the world.

Canadian Olympian and National Skiing Champion Allison Forsyth – A survivor and safe sports advocate, Allison will share her experience of being sexually abused by the Canadian National Skiing Team coach and discuss sexual assaults in sports.

Case Study Theoret Sexual Assault / Triple Homicide – O.P.P. Detective Inspector Martin Graham will outline the investigation into a sexual assault case that resulted in a triple homicide in Northern Ontario.

Project Philly – O.P.P. Historical Multi Jurisdictional Serial Offender – O.P.P. Detective Inspector Chris Landry will detail the recent re-investigation of a historic serial predator who committed sexual assaults in the 1980s that occurred in seven regional/municipal police service jurisdictions.

Cold Case Solved Through Genealogy – The abduction, rape and murder of six-year-old Ljubica Topic solved through genealogy will be presented by the Windsor Police Service.

In addition, members will receive updates from the CFS, Provincial Major Case Management, a justice panel and hear about advancements in forensic DNA.

Register at yrp.ca/SAIAO.

Registration: $350 earlybird (first 75 registrants only). $400 per registrant after.

No refunds once registered

Hotel: $125 per night plus $25/day parking and applicable taxes

For any further information, please contact Inspector Simon James at 1394@yrp.ca or 1-866-876-5423, ext. 6684 or visit saiao.ca.

REGISTRATION NOW OPEN